

L'OFFICIEL

TRAVEL & GOURMET

De L'Europe Amsterdam reopens its doors

The transformation of Amsterdam's oldest luxury hotel captures the identity of this vibrant city. The historical splendour and international charm of the hotel meets timeless style and refined elegance. Highly recommended!

06.25.2020
by Sarita Virk

"We are very proud to show the results of our redesign to our guests and the rest of the world. The entire ground floor has been given a complete new look and new offerings have been added to the hotel. Building a bridge between the past and the present, De L'Europe is ready to start a new chapter with its interior design. Warm, comfortable, intimate, sophisticated and it reflects the grandeur of the rich history of our hotel. It creates a new dynamic and sense of liveliness for hotel guests and locals alike." says Edward Leenders, Managing Director.

SEE ALSO: Editorial: Idea de Mundo

Picture 1: Lobby Interior; Picture 2: Library Room

The renowned Amsterdam design studio Nicemakers was responsible for the interior design of the lounges, public areas, private function rooms, three restaurants and bars. While maintaining the distinctly stately character of the hotel, they chose warm colours and combined unique objects with antique and custom-made furniture to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

The result: a new interior that conveys the historical splendour and international charm of the hotel with timeless style and refined elegance in the world of Original Amsterdam Luxury. Timelessly classic, elegant and feminine design, imbued with the bold spirit of Amsterdam: a home for lovers of the true and beautiful.

Library Room De L'Europe

About De L'Europe Amsterdam

The history of the hotel De L'Europe Amsterdam goes back to 1896. Once built on the remnants of the old city wall, the hotel has developed from an exclusive hotel in the city centre into a protector of Amsterdam culture and style. De L'Europe Amsterdam offers its guests 111 rooms and suites.

In the basement there is a luxurious spa and a wellness area. The hotel also offers its guests various restaurants and bars. These are restaurant Bord'Eau where celebrated Chef Bas van Kranen is in charge of the kitchen, brasserie Marie and Freddy's bar, the legendary bar where the late Freddy Heineken loved to come and relax. The concierges of De L'Europe, the Clefs D'Or, like to point out to guests the finest and most local that Amsterdam has to offer.

More info see www.deleurope.com.